

Statement Pursuant to Section 19(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940

On March 27, 2026, 1WS Credit Income Fund (“Fund”) paid distributions on its common stock of $0.45 to both shareholders of Class I and Class A-2 on record at the close of business on March 25, 2026. The Fund estimated that 76% of the distribution was attributable to net investment income, 5% was attributable to short-term capital gain and 19% was attributable to return of capital.

The characterization of Fund distributions for federal income tax purposes (as presented above) is different from GAAP characterization. This notice is not for tax reporting purposes and is being provided only for informational purposes to comply with the requirements of Section 19 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. The actual distribution amounts and sources of those amounts for tax reporting purposes will depend upon the Fund’s investment experience during the remainder of its fiscal year and may be subject to changes based on tax regulations. In early 2027, shareholders will receive a Form 1099-DIV for the calendar year 2026, which will reflect the amount of income, capital gain and return of capital to be reported for federal income tax purposes.

There is no action required on your part at this time.
